September 3, 2014

Dr. Bernardo Rocco,

It is with great pleasure that I take this opportunity to offer you an appointment as the International Scientific Director for The Global Robotics Institute of Celebration Health. This rank is effective through June 30, 2015.

Your passion and contribution to our field of study is unparalleled. Over the course of two years here you proudly completed both a research and clinical fellowship and went on to publish over 100 peer-reviewed publications and perform over 500 robotic cases. You are recognized as an esteemed international speaker and have been invited to lecture at the most prestigious forums in the world.

Your involvement as a charter member of the Society of Robotic Surgery, board member of the Junior Section of the European Robotic Urology Society and the EAU section of Oncological Urology and your membership in the Italian Society of Urology illustrate your commitment to excellence.

It is our distinct honor to have you rejoining our team in this important role. We congratulate you on your remarkable achievements thus far and we look forward to our future collaborations.

Sincerely,

Vipul Patel, MD, FACS
